HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE has come to be the leading paper for juvenile readers.—TROY BUDGET.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE,

AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY,

16 PAGES.

The number of HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE, dated March 16, 1880, will complete the thirteen issues promised to subscribers to HARPER'S WEEKLY for 1880, and will therefore be the last number to be sent out with that paper. The publishers will mail the remaining thirty-two numbers of the first volume, which will conclude with the number dated October 26, 1880, postage free, to any address in the United States or Canada, on receipt of one Dollar. Those who wish the back numbers, as well as the remainder of the volume, should send One Dollar and Fifty Cents, the price of the year's subscription.

The publishers renew their assurance that they will make every effort to please their young patrons by providing weekly an attractive and instructive variety of illustrated reading.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Its beauty is unmistakable.  Destined to be as widely popular as good editorial management, wise liberality of expenditure, and a correct apprehension of the wants of the great juvenile reading public can make it.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Full of capital stories and essays for the little folks, and brilliantly illustrated.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

Full of innocent fun and useful knowledge, made really entertaining. The pictures are many and good.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

For neatness, elegance of engraving, and contents generally, it is unsurpassed by any publication of the kind yet brought to our notice.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

A weekly paper for children which parents need not fear to let their children read at the family fire-side.—Hartford Daily Times.

A mine of intelligent entertainment to the young people of the land.—N. Y. Evening Mail.

The stories are bright, entertaining, and avoid prosiness. The illustrations are capital.—N. Y. Evening Express.

We hasten to commend this new pictorial weekly for young folks. It contains a great deal of excellent reading at a low figure, and will be worth thousands of dollars to every community where the boys and girls are induced to read it.—Sunday-School Journal, N. Y., edited by the Rev. Dr. VINCENT.

BOOKS ON ART.

Great Lights in Sculpture and Painting.

A Manual for Young Students. By S. D. DOREMUS. 12mo, cloth, $1.
"This little volume has grown out of a want felt by a writer who desired to take a class through the history of the great sculptors and painters, as a preliminary step to an intelligent journey through Europe."—From Preface.

Schools and Masters of Painting.

With an Appendix on the Principal Galleries of Europe. With numerous Illustrations. By A. G. RADCLIFFE. 1 vol., 12mo, cloth, $3.

"The volume is one of great practical utility, and may be used to advantage as an artistic guide-book by persons visiting the collections of Italy, France, and Germany for the first time. The twelve great pictures of the world, which are familiar by copies and engravings to all who have the slightest tincture of taste for art, are described in a special chapter, which affords a convenient stepping-stone to a just appreciation of the most celebrated masterpieces of painting. An important feature of the work, and one which may save the traveller much time and expense, is the sketch presented in the Appendix of the galleries of Florence, Rome, Venice, Paris, Dresden, and other European collections."—New York Tribune.

Studio, Field, and Gallery.

A Manual of Painting for the Student and Amateur; with Information for the General Reader. By HORACE J. ROLLIN. 1 vol., 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

"The work is a small one, but it is comprehensive in its scope; it is written as tersely as possible, with no waste sentences, and scarcely any waste words, and to amateur artists and art-students it will be invaluable as a hand-book of varied information for ready reference."—New York Evening Post.

Ruskin on Painting.

With a Biographical Sketch. (Forming No. 29 of Appletons' "New Handy-Volume Series.") 12mo, paper, 30 cents; cloth, 60 cents.

CLEAN, ORIGINAL READING,

For the Thinking Man, and the Man of Affairs.

Nothing, if not Progressive.

A GREAT FEATURE,

"JOSIAH QUINCY'S RECOLLECTIONS,"

ENTITLED

"Leaves from Old Journals."

Being a rare record of the Great Men of American History, with many of whom the venerable Mr. QUINCY has been personally acquainted; and of the Great Events of that History, in not a few of which he has been a participator. These fine sketches acquire a still greater value and interest when it is known that their author, at the great age of eighty years, writes with the freshness, vivacity, and enjoyment of the scenes he describes, of a young man of thirty. Every American should possess and preserve this unique collection of rare reminiscences of a passing age.

In addition, there are articles on the Live Questions of the Day; Subjects of Practical Value to the Million; Art Notes and Musical and Dramatic Criticism; Sketches of Travel; Scenes Among the Mines; Pithy Paragraphs; Sharp Sayings; Dainty Dissertations; Racy Reflections; Pure Poetry; Witty Writing; Short Stories, etc., etc.

Japanese Porcelain and Art Pottery.

We respectfully invite our friends and the public to examine our stock of beautiful Japanese Wares, selected by our agents in Japan.

Our collection is especially rich in Satsuma Ware, as well as in Old and Modern KAGA and KIOTO FAIENCE, Nagasaki, Arita, and Owari Porcelain, Cloisonné Enamels, Curios, etc. Many of these porcelains, etc., were painted and finished years ago by artists who only aimed to produce elaborately finished articles, without regard to time required, and not intended for export, cannot now be reproduced in equal perfection, and will, therefore, be highly prized by collectors.

Portraits in Oil, CRAYON, Black and White, or in colors, Water Colors, India Ink, or in miniature form, executed in the most artistic manner and to the satisfaction of those honoring us with their attention.

Signed, JULIUS LUDOVICI,

Messrs. TIFFANY & CO. have organized an extensive department for the manufacture of Traveling Bags and other hand bags of such fine leathers as Alligator Skin, Morocco, Russia and Sealskin.

They also keep all kinds of Toilet Requisites to furnish bags, so that a lady or gentleman can have the required articles and no others, avoiding the extra weight and monopoly of room which unnecessary articles incur, a fault common in foreign-made bags.

A furnished bag is a great convenience in keeping toilet articles together in the meagre space which a stateroom affords, and persons preparing for European or other travel are invited to examine these goods.
